Lady Diamond Pros Cares

For every team that registered in our Pink Classic Tournament, a portion of their entry fee was donated to Making Strides against Breast Cancer.

Despite our main colors being navy and Columbia blue, LDP has been decked out in pink. The color pink is an international symbol for breast cancer. Wearing a pink ribbon, or a pink outfit, is a simple way to express moral support for those who have been diagnosed with breast cancer. It was a beautiful sight to see all of the young women on the field playing wearing their pink uniforms.

Coaches Corner

Hi! My name is Riley O'Connor and I am 18 years old. I have been playing softball since I was 6 years old and I have loved it ever since I picked up a bat for the first time. I am a freshman utility player on the Queens College softball team, where I am majoring in Early Childhood Education. I graduated from Archbishop Molloy this past spring. At Molloy, I was named to the Varsity Allstar team in my sophomore and junior year and I was named a team captain my senior year. Although my senior season was cut short due to COVID I was lucky enough to be apart of many championship teams. I am one of the coaches for the 14u '06 team and I am excited to share my knowledge of the game!
